

An evening of music and theatre to delight the heart, honouring the life of Bahá'u'lláh, founder of the Bahá'í Faith, as narrated and recollected by Edward Granville Browne, the famous 19th century Cambridge Oriental historian, who was one of the few Westerners to meet Him.

This is one of the two Bahá'í Bicentenaries taking place in 2017 and 2019, marking the elapse of two hundred years respectively since the Birth of Bahá'u'lláh and the Birth of the Báb.

THE BAHÁ'Í FAITH

Twin Bicentenaries, Cambridge

The Cambridge Bahá'í community, together with their families, friends, neighbours, and guests, will celebrate these Bicentenaries through a number of events, the main one of which will take place in Wolfson Hall at Churchill College from 7-9:30 pm on Sunday, 22nd October 2017.

This event is free to attend but booking is essential.
